

September 17, 2016 - Presentation by Annette Rugolo

Is your home energetically supporting or depleting you?

We are beginning to understand the influence of the energy of our environments and more importantly, we are learning how to transform this energy through dowsing. Dowsing has been around for thousands of years and many cultures have used it to create a stronger connection with the earth's vibrational field.